Make your nursing career work for you

You're a health professional – a nurse practitioner, nurse or medical assistant.

Your skills are in demand, but you want more control. You want a working environment that fits your personality and a schedule that fits your life. Occupational Health Connections can help you find the perfect fit, whether you want temporary, part-time or full-time employment.

OHC specializes in recruiting occupational health professionals, who make a positive difference in the workplace by delivering health and safety programs and services to employees. Occupational health professionals and employers are carefully matched, assuring satisfaction for both parties.

Advantages of working with Occupational Health Connections include:

▶ Reputation

You've worked hard to get where you are. No recruitment agency is better positioned to partner with you to advance your career to the next level. OHC is well connected to the occupational health marketplace and has many strong relationships with employers.

▶ Flexibility

You decide when and where you want to work.

▶ Mentoring

As an occupational health nurse with 20 years of experience, OHC founder Nancy Clover, RN, COHN-S is highly qualified to mentor, coach and support you while you are on assignment.

▶ New skills

Different assignments present opportunities to learn and develop new skills, enhancing your resume and increasing your value to employers.

▶ Variety

Per diem positions may last for days, weeks or months, so you'll experience many different settings. OHC services a variety of employers, including manufacturing, governmental, hospitals and office environments.

Frequently Asked Questions

▶ How do I apply?

Please e-mail your resume to jobs@occhealthconnections.com. Your resume will be reviewed and you will be contacted by phone for a screening.

▶ Is there a cost for this service?

No. Employment services are provided to healthcare professionals at no cost.

▶ Where are your clients located?

Talented nurses are recruited nationally. For temporary and contract staffing, OHC services all of New England.

▶ Is there a lot of travel?

For temporary assignments, you decide where you want to work, so the length of your commute is up to you.

▶ Do I have to accept all assignments?

You can say no to any assignment. You manage your own time. It's your choice. You can work as much or as little as you want.

▶ Will my resume be sent out without my permission?

No. OHC will not release your resume without your permission.

▶ I am just looking. Will my inquiries remain confidential?

Yes, all inquiries remain confidential. Occupational Health Connections is always committed to protecting your privacy.
